2012

43rd Season

The Ron Maslin Playhouse

is a modern 350-seat theatre situated just off Terry Fox Drive, south of the Queensway in Kanata.

West Moon Street
by Rob Urbinati
directed by Wendy Wagner
September 20 - 24 &
September 27 - October 1

Lord Arthur is deliriously happy – just down from Oxford and engaged to be married – when a mysterious palm reader predicts that he will commit a murder. A proper English gentleman, Arthur believes it is his Duty to get this killing business over with before he marries. But, his education has not provided him with the required skills, and a hilarious series of mishaps ensues as he sets about finding a victim. Based on Lord Arthur Savile's Crime by Oscar Wilde.

Maggie's Getting Married
by Norm Foster
directed by Dorothy Gardner
November 8 - 12 & 15 - 19

You are cordially invited to join the Duncan family as they prepare for the wedding of their youngest daughter. It's the night before the big day and everything is going according to plan at the rehearsal party until Maggie's older sister, Wanda, discovers she knows the groom a little better than Maggie would like. Will the sibling rivalry between the bride-to-be and her party-girl sister ruin the wedding? Laugh the night away with this hilarious romantic comedy by Norm Foster, Canada's funniest playwright.

A Pack of Lies
by Hugh Whitmore directed by Beverley Brooks
February 7 - 11 & 14 - 18

Set in a London suburb and based on true events, this thriller begins when the Jackson family greets their good friends and Canadian neighbours, the Krogers. The Jacksons are quickly thrust into the middle of an investigation by the mysterious agent Stewart, who is tracking Russian spies. Suddenly even innocent actions take on sinister meanings as the family struggles with deception and lies...and choosing between loyalty to their country or to their friends.

Friends, With Benefits
by Kate Horzempa & L.E. Hines directed by Brett Kelly
March 27 - 31 & April 3 - 7

When Ben and Lily met several years ago, it was "friends at first sight". But, nobody believes that Lily and Ben are "just friends". As Ben's parents plot to ensure he finds true love, Lily may have just discovered her dream man. Will they be able to hold off meddling friends and family long enough to realize their true feelings? This hilarious Canadian comedy puts the bounds of friendship to the test.

Romeo & Juliet
by William Shakespeare directed by Tom Kobolak
May 15 - 19 & May 22 - 26

Shakespeare's masterpiece of love, courage and redemption comes to life against the backdrop of the 1848 Uprising. And as the struggle of Italian patriots flares into open and bloody revolt against their Austrian overlords, two Houses, both alike in dignity, face a new and powerful mutiny of their own...
*Commend me to thy Lady, And bid her hasten all the house to bed...
... Romeo is coming.*

a year with frog and toad

Book and Lyrics by Willie Reale; Music by Robert Reale
Based on the books by Arnold Lobel

This musical remains true to the spirit of the original stories by Arnold Lobel as it follows two great friends, the cheerful and popular Frog and the rather grumpy Toad through four fun-filled seasons. Waking from hibernation in the spring, they proceed to plant gardens, swim, rake leaves and go sledding, learning life lessons along the way, including a most important one about friendship and rejoicing in the attributes that make each of us different and special.

Dec. 27 at 1 & 4 p.m.; Dec. 28 at 7 p.m.

Dec. 29 at 1 & 4 p.m.; Dec. 30 at 1 p.m.

Note: All tickets $8 reserved, discount price $5 when purchased with season's subscription.

A YEAR WITH FROG AND TOAD - THEATRE YOUNG AUDIENCES is presented through special arrangement with Music Theatre International (MTI). All authorized performance materials are also supplied by MTI.
